Profile:

I am a Graphic Designer who is a hard-working creative with a first class degree in Graphic design. I am looking for an entry level job or internship in the Graphic Design industry to gain valuable experience and develop my skills and knowledge further. I have strong skills in adobe suite, especially in In-design, illustrator and photoshop, with a passion to develop these further in the workplace. My knowledge and interest in other forms of design helps me without the box thinking to solve the task at hand. I can offer the company my flexibility, organisation skills, creativity, and a willingness to work hard and learn.
